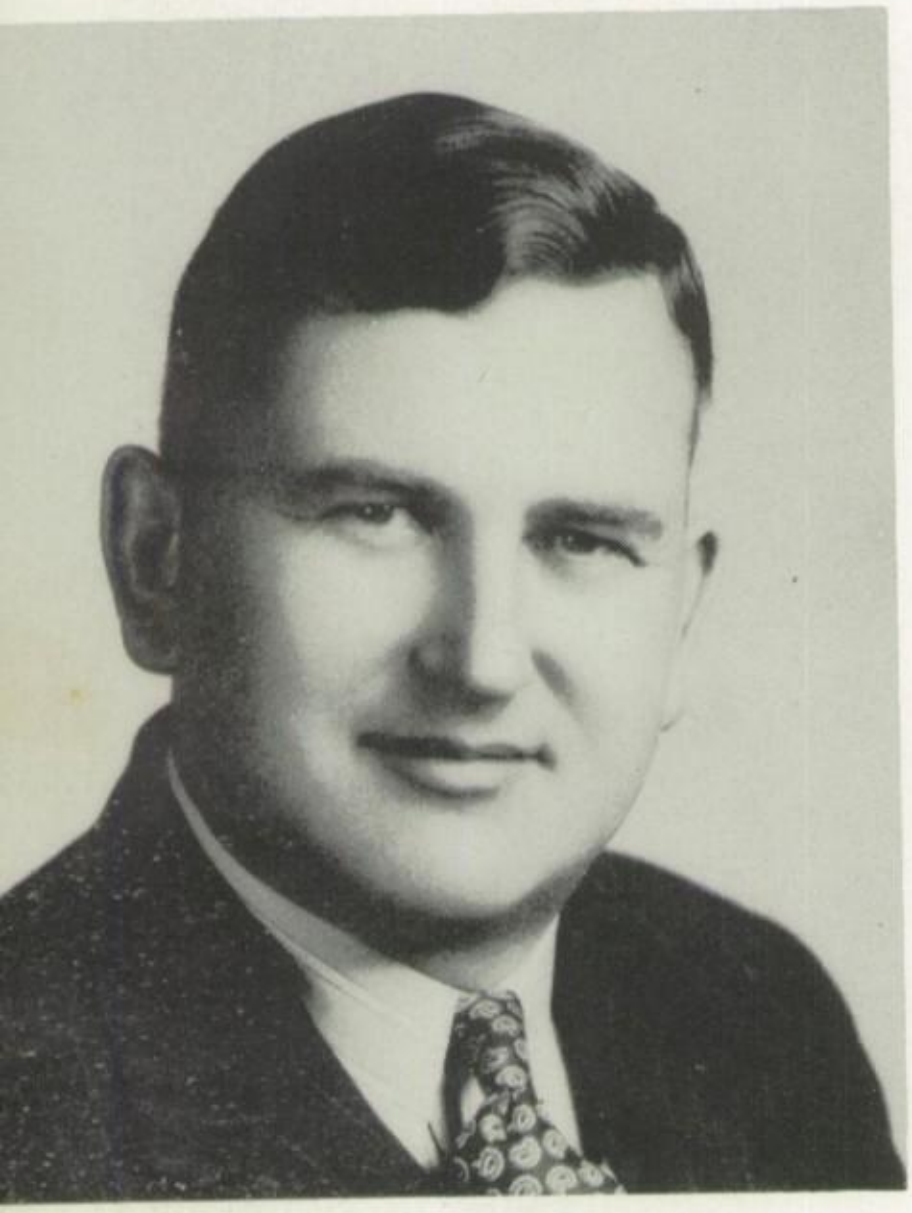
ADMINISTRATION



SUPERINTENDENT OF THE WAVERLY SCHOOLS

J. R. TEICHERT

Throughout his life, Mr. Teichert has been associated with the Waverly schools — as a pupil, a teacher, and the present superintendent; therefore, he knows his community well and is aware of its problems.

He is especially interested in the selection and expansion of a curriculum to fit both the individual and general needs of boys and girls. He recognizes the fact that happiness and the well-being of each and every person is the keynote of maintaining the principles of democracy.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT

Mr. Way received his Ph. B. from Ohio Northern and his M. A. from the University of Wisconsin. He is spending his best years and doing his best work as Superintendent of Pike County, which office he has filled since 1931. His successful school policies are recognized and accredited throughout Southern Ohio.

SCHOOL BOARD

The Waverly School Board is alert to the growing educational demands of the present time. They take care of equipment needs, the personnel of the school, and school programs. As a result Waverly has beautiful, well-equipped buildings, an effective curriculum, a capable supervisor, and an excellent faculty.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF '48

Treasurer . . . . . Lawrence Hoffman

MOTTO: Bravely, faithfully, successfully.

COLORS: Maroon and White.

FLOWER: Carnation.

What a wonderful day it was in 1936, when Miss Crabtree and Miss Keechle greeted our class of ninety-two first graders. Only the following nineteen of the original class remain in the class of forty-seven graduates: Curtis Kordell, Margery Miller, Morris Swiger, Norma Jean Scott, Thelma Tackett, Betty Fulscher, Donna Jean Breitenbach, Mary Woods, Dolores Whaley, Dolly Zonner, John McCoy, Joe Rhoads, Juanita Keechle, Pat Moore, Herman Harris, Annetta Armbruster, Hobart Helman, Ann Beninger.

As we studied and played, time and grades slipped by rapidly. We especially enjoyed home-made candy sales, making rag rugs, special programs, double recesses for perfect spelling, and the Junior American Citizen Club.

After finishing the sixth grade, we felt quite important as we marched into the Clough Street High School, but that feeling soon changed to amazement at the long corridors, all those bells, and a new teacher for every class.

The eighth grade test climaxed our junior high school. We were rather proud of the results.

During our freshman and sophomore years we were constantly looking forward to publishing the Hi-Lites and to doing all the wonderful things that juniors and seniors do.

Then our turn came. Publishing the Hi-Lites was a mad scramble; producing the junior class play, Apron-String Revolt, was hard work but lots of fun; and the Junior-Senior Banquet was a delightful social affair given at Lake White.

Finally came our big year packed full of senior activities. We immediately went into action to produce a bigger and better Waverly Novel. To meet the demands of our budget, we sold subscriptions for the year book, procured advertising, published the school paper, and gave after-game dances. Mr. Marble took care of the photography while we snapped and snapped snaps. We also typed and retyped manuscripts until the dummy was ready.

Meanwhile many of us were also busy playing basketball, cheerleading, playing in the band, and singing in the glee club. Then, to tax our brains were the Bank Essay Contest, the D. A. R. Test, and the Senior Scholarship Test.

We felt however that the crowning events were during that last week: the Baccalaureate, the Class Play "Quiet Summer," Commencement, and the Alumni Banquet.

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1948, know that we will be unable to roam the halls of W. H. S. any longer and do hereby bequeath our most treasured possessions to other members of Waverly High School, and hope they will enjoy their school days as much as we.

To the Teachers, we do hereby will our most sincere thanks for the time and effort they have given to make us proud to have been members of W. H. S.

To the Junior Class we do hereby will our joys and lasting memories of being Seniors.

To the Sophomore Class, we do hereby will our ability to please our teachers.

To the Freshman Class, we do hereby will our dignity, which they will need.

To the School Board, we do hereby will our "thanks" for everything.

I, KATHLEEN ANDERSON, will my pleasing personality to Dorothy Fulscher.

I, ANNETTA ARMBRUSTER, will my love to go to McDermott to Jane Beninger.

I, ANN BENINGER, bequeath my studious mind to Alfred McCoy.

I, DORIS BROWN, will my ability to mispronounce words to Miss Vallery.

I, DONNA BREITENBACH, do hereby will my red hair to anyone who wouldn't mind being called "red".

I, BETTY CASTLE, will my blue eyes to Wanda Strickland.

I, LOIS COOL, reluctantly bequeath my good nature to Mr. Teichert.

I, BOB DEACON, will the presidency of the Senior class to Kenny Hale.

I, BETTY ANN DOWNING, do hereby will my love for cheerleading to Mary Belle Kinney.

I, BETTY FULSCHER, will my weak voice to Margie Hatfield.

I, DONALD HAMMOND, do hereby will my sense of humor to Julia Jones.

I, HERMAN HARRIS, will my public speaking ability to John Schwartz.

I, CHARLES HARRIS, will my love for sports to Dick Jose.

I, HOBIE HELMAN do hereby will my way with the opposite sex to Linda Blaum.

I, LAWRENCE HOFFMAN, will my distaste for school to Mildred Carter.

I, MELVIN JONES, will my way of "getting there fast" to Gary Stahler.

We, JUANITA KEECHLE and AMAJEAN WALTERS, will our perpetual firendship to Juanita Hughes and Esther Bauer.

I, JACK KINNEY, will my Southern accent to the Yankees of Waverly High School.

I, CURTIS KORDEL, will my fondness for blondes to Richard Armbruster.

I, JOHN McCOY, do hereby will my mechanical mind to Don Pfeifer.

I, JAMES McGOWAN, will my knack for playing pool to Joe Cofer.

I, RUBY McREYNOLDS, bequeath my slimness to Patty Sibole.

I, MARGERY MILLER, will my stubbornness to Mary Lou Leeth.

I, PAT MOORE, do hereby bequeath my hunting skill to Bill Arrowood.

I, HAROLD MORRIS, will my art talent to Mickey Jose.

I, DORIS ONEY, bequeath my recipe for making Mr. Smith talk to Carolyn Rhoads.

I, JAMES OYER, will my lack of ambition to Barbara Martin.

I, EUNICE PFEIFER, willingly bequeath my camera to Mr. Perry.

I, JOE RHOADS, will my superman physique to Leo Foster.

I, NORMA JEAN SCOTT, do hereby will my way of doing things wrong to my brother, Bill.

I, HESTER SIMMONS, will my love for typing to Wilma Harris.

I, RUTH SNYDER, do hereby bequeath my friendly ways to Ruby Eblin.

I, ROBERT STANLEY, will my timidness to Jerry Brown.

I, ROBERT STEINER, will my technique of being a one-girl man to Margan Shrader.

I, NAOMI STRICLAND, do hereby will my black tresses to Marilyn Watters.

I, MILDRED STRONG, will my neatness to Muriel Carey.

I, MORRIS SWIGER, do hereby leave my flashy neckties and sweaters to Francis Hoffman.

I, THELMA TACKETT, bequeath my nickname "Windy" to Pearl Andre.

I, CHARLOTTE WEST, will my ability to get acquainted easily to Edith Howard.

I, BOB WEST, do hereby will my flirtatious ways to Bob Dyke.

I, WELLS WEST, will my art of driving a truck to Dick McFerren.

I, DOLORES WHALEY, will my love of shorthand to Jeanne McGowan.

I, DOLLY ZONNER, bequeath my chewing gum to Margaret Collins.

We, the SENIOR CLASS, do hereby appoint our adviser, Miss Vallery, executrix of this, our Last Will and Testament. We direct that she not be required to give bond or security for the performance of her duties as executrix.

In Witness Whereof, we have hereunto set our hands, this Fourteenth day of May, 1948.

THE SENIOR CLASS OF '48.

CLASS PROPHECY

Miss Vallery's daily quiz being over, we sat back relaxed as she directed us to open our books to read a scene from Macbeth. The witches chorus had the effect of a lullaby for all at once the page became blurred, and my classmates were going round and round chanting:

"Double, double toil and trouble;
Fire burn and caldron bubble."

The class, or was it the witches, faded out as I winged upward. Yes, there sat John McCoy at the controls. Suddenly I remembered that I was an international correspondent for the New York Times on my way to London to cover the coronation of Elizabeth II. Catherine Wittkugle, my secretary, and the nattily dressed Pat Moore, my camera man, were sitting opposite me. I overheard Catherine say, "Just think, it has been twelve years since we graduated from Waverly High. I'm getting quite anxious to see Mr. and Mrs. Swiger and their three red-headed sons."

When we arrived, sure enough, there were Donna Jean and Morris eagerly waiting for us. Morris had been recently appointed ambassador to England. They graciously invited me to be their guest during my stay. We could hardly wait to exchange news items.

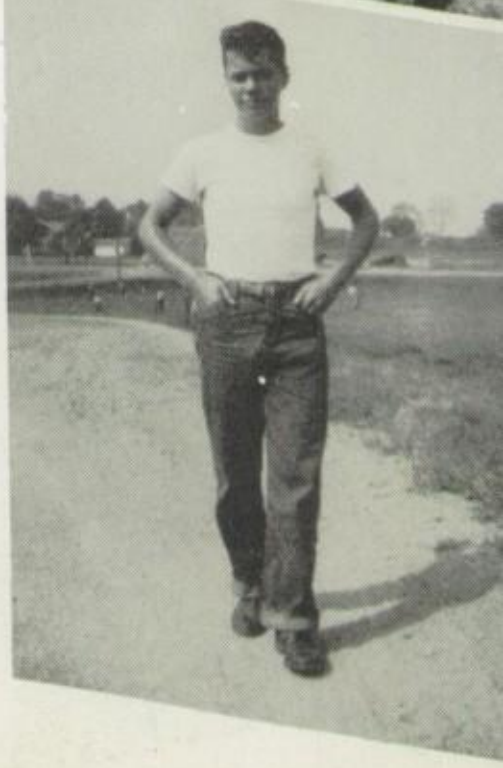
I had just left the Lake White Colony, the Hollywood of Ohio, where I had seen several of the old gang. For three whole days I had been resting at White Villa, the swanky resort club, managed by Hobie Helman and his beautiful wife, the former Betty Castle. Marriage had rescued her from a stage career.

During my stay I had met again and talked with Robert Stanley, movie producer, and his wife, Ruby McReynolds; Jim McGowan, sound technician; Betty Ann Downing, glamour girl; Mary Wood, novelist; and gentleman Jack Kinney and his socialite wife, Eunice Pfeifer. Jack had struck oil.

I learned from Hobie that the Lake White City boom was due to Robert West, realtor and business promoter. The story seemed almost fantastic. A helicopter manufacturer, Mr. Copter, had crashed into his Noname farm-house, and consequently, had met and liked Robert and his wife, Namoi. He had invested a cool ten million in West's initial project. Donald Hammond was one of his foremost contractors, and the beautiful homes extending on the hillside from Waverly to the lake is the result of their special work. Furthermore, Mr. Copter had built one of his major plants in Waverly in which he placed Herman Harris as supervisor.

As I left White-Wave Airport, I discovered Ruthie Snyder at the ticket window and Thelma Tackett at the Information Desk. Ruthie called to James Oyer, weather man, to meet an old classmate. At the same time Mayor Rhodes stepped up to greet me. He was indeed proud of the new city and asked me to be sure to include it somehow or other in a special report in my paper.

Before I could get away, up came Lois Cool and Doris Brown as chic as if they had come directly from Paris—instead, they had come directly from their class rooms in Waverly high. Lois was dramatic director, and Doris, art instructor. Superintendent Robert Steiner had sent his best regards, as had Charlotte West in charge of Home Economics.



When I asked Lois and Doris about some of the other girls of our class, they told me that Mildred Strong Cateral and Dolores Whaley Fyffe had really stayed married and that they and their husbands had set up a chain of furniture stores in southern Ohio with Waverly as headquarters. Mildred and Dolores gave invaluable aid to the business as interior decorators. The girls also told me that Wells West and his third wife, Doris Oney, were firmly established on a big cattle ranch in Brazil. They hoped that Wells had really settled down.

"And now, Donna Jean, it is your turn." She had been dying to tell me that Hester Simmons was Mistress of the Wardrobe for Princess Elizabeth, and that I would be able to see her. Among the American guests invited to the coronation were Norma Jean Scott and Larry Hoffman, who had so successfully filled the gap vacated by Lynn Fontanne and Alfred Lunt; the comedy team of Lazar and Zonner; and movie actor, handsome Curtis Kordel. After our gab fest, Donna's three sons and their red-headed governess, whom I discovered to be none other than Amagean Walters. were introduced to me.

From London I flew directly to Spain to cover the 1960 Olympics. I knew in advance that I should find some of Waverly's former athletic satellites there: Melvin Jones, speed demon; Chuck Harris, javelin tosser; the vibrant Margie Miller, figure ice skater; and mermaid Annetta Armbruster.

Upon arrival at the huge stadium, I bumped into the famous globe trotters, Kathleen Anderson and Ann Beninger. Yes, they were married, but they usually left their husbands to keep the home fires burning. They reported their last news item from home was the elaborate wedding of Harold Morris and Betty Fulscher. Bishop Robert Deacon had tied the knot.

Just then I saw Melvin Jones take his place on the line. What a thrill as we waited for the whistle to sound to watch him spring forward! But what was that awful buzzing — surely not a signal? Where did it come from? I looked again. There directly in front of me sat Melvin closing his book. The next instant the buzzer sounded again, and the class was changing. Why, I must have been --------.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

President . . . . . Kenneth Hale

Vice-President . . . . John Schwartz

Secretary . . . . . Don Mathews

Treasurer . . . . Carolyn Rhoads

The Junior Class of fifty-two members is outstanding because of its interest and participation in sports, cheer-leading, music, drama, scholarship and class activities — especially the publishing of the Hi-Lite, the production of their class play, and then banqueting the Seniors.

JUNIORS

SOPHOMORES

The Sophomore Class under the enrollment of Mr. Drake, in the mathematics room, and Mr. Perry, in Room 19, consists of seventy-four pupils who know everything from atoms to zithers. They really are a wide-awake group from whom you will hear much.

ATHLETICS

CHEERLEADERS

The Varsity Squad of our Cheerleaders consists of five girls, all of them are Seniors. They have done much in the past year to build up pep, interest, and excitement in the football and basketball games. Donning new uniforms, they did a fine job of cheering.

The Reserve Squad, like the Varsity, is picked by a popular vote of the student body. The team is made up of one Senior, three Juniors and one Freshman. These girls will serve as candidates for next year.
The team is really proud of the job of the Cheerleaders this year.

WHAT WE THINK OF OUR PLAYERS

Hobie Helman—Fast and good shot. Expert passer. Good teamwork. Never rattled.

Lawrence Hoffman—Good passer. Good on long shots. Lawrence makes defense look silly with his long shots.

CHUCK HARRIS—Most always high point man. Scorer usually marked down two when Chuck shot.

John Schwartz—The "sky scraper" short man of the team, only 6 ft. 1 in. Never worried about rebounds when John got position.

Bob Dyke—Dependable. Never worried. Good one-hand shot.

Herman Harris—Did very well to have only two years experience. Tough on rebounds and defense.

Alfred McCoy—Alfred's first year of varsity basketball. Did very well. Coach expects a lot out of him next year.

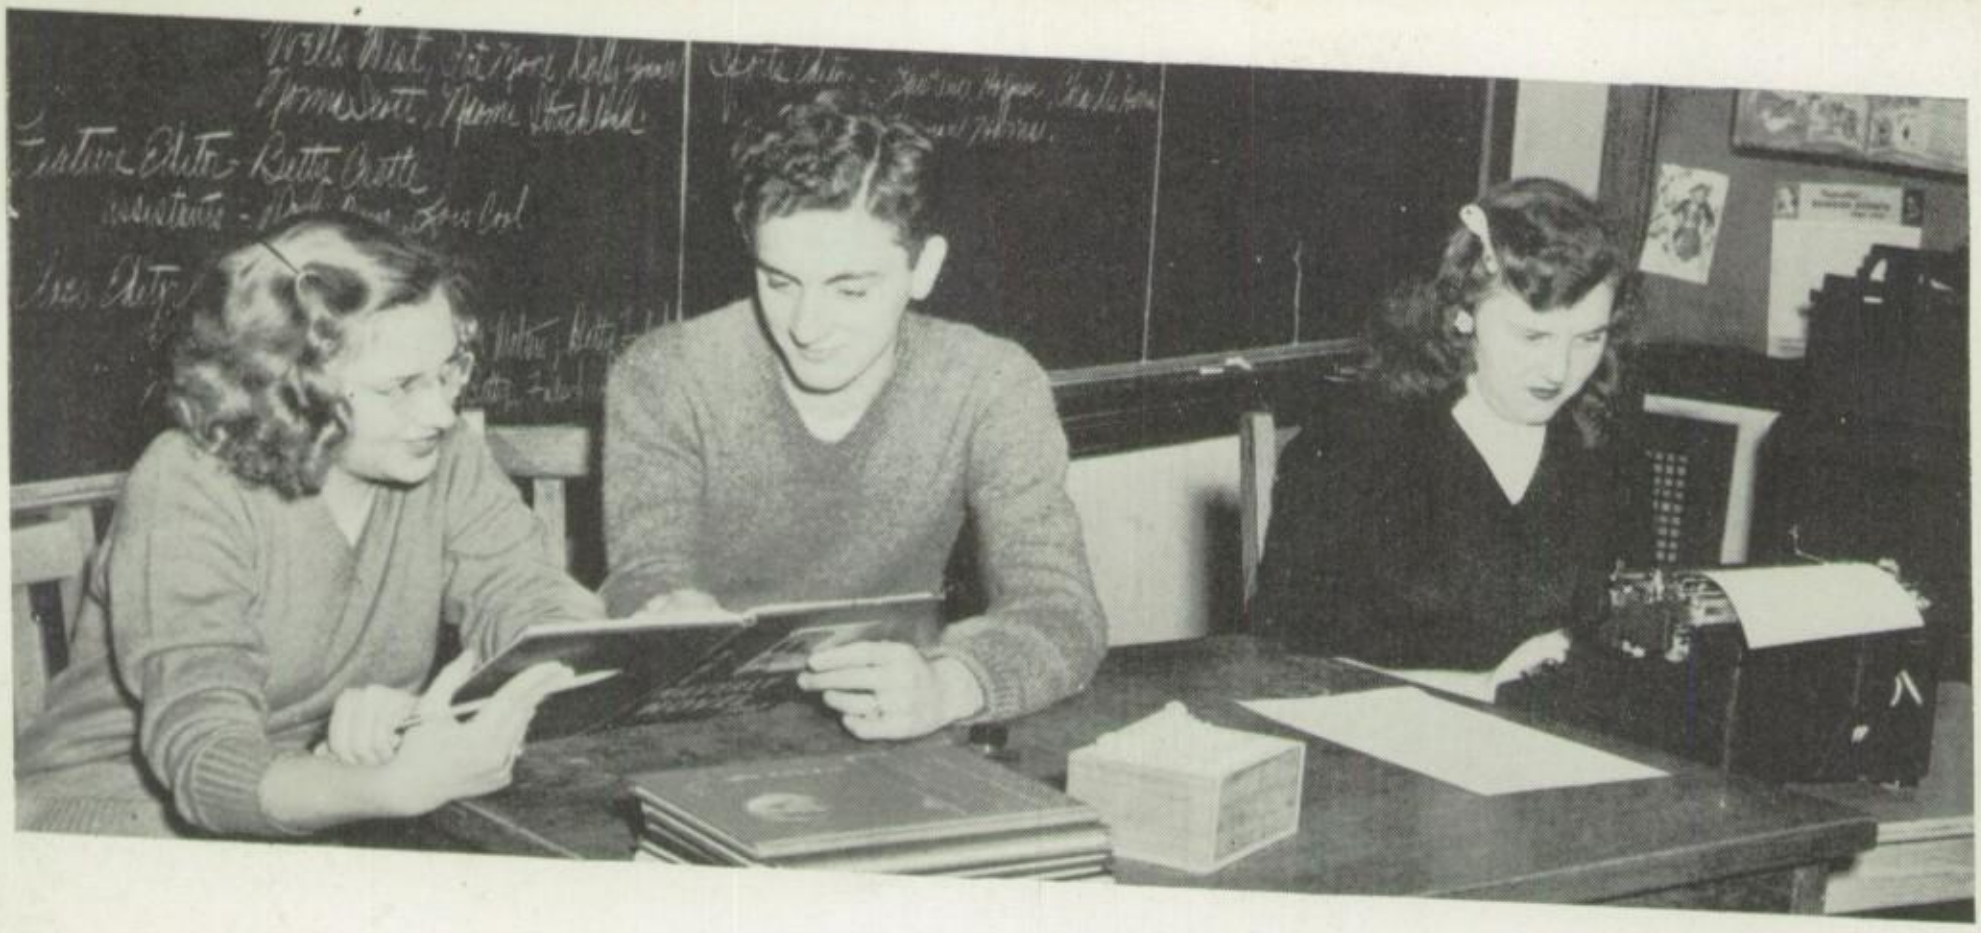
ACTIVITIES

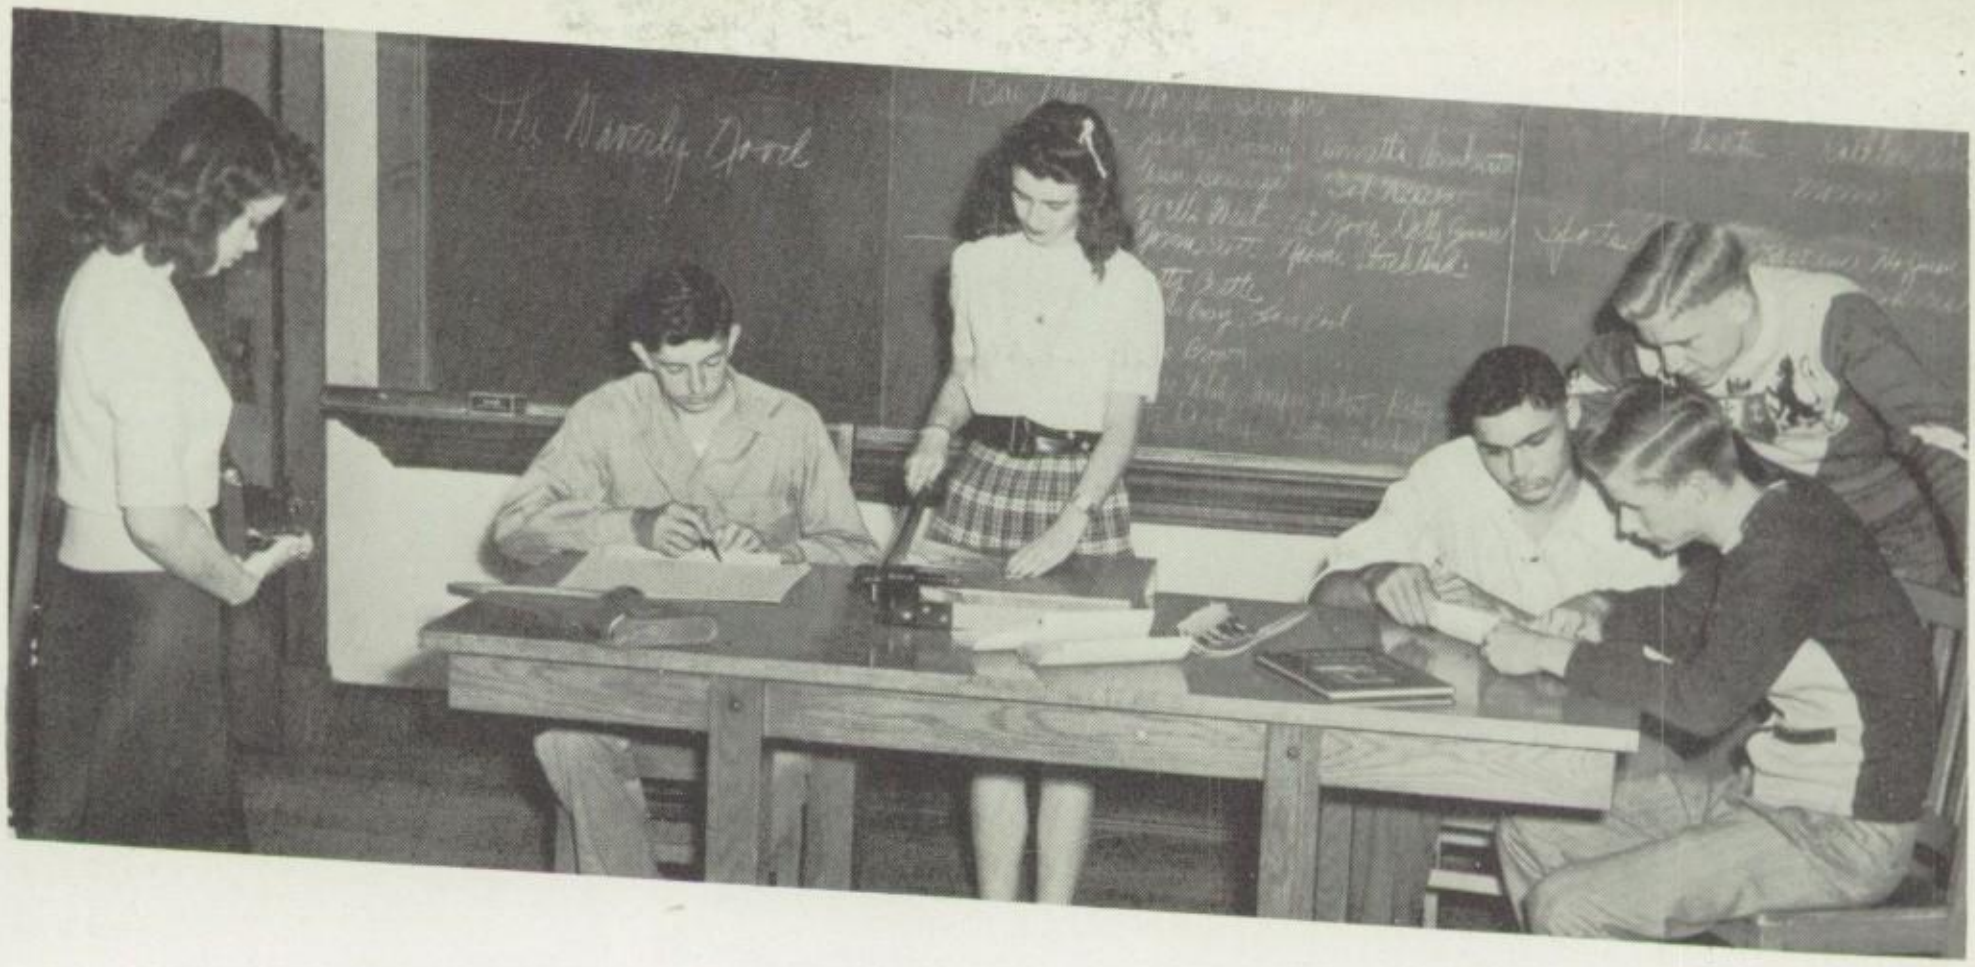


CO-EDITORS: Hobie Helman, Margery Miller. SECRETARY: Donna Jean Breitenbach

ANNUAL STAFF

The Seniors have spent much time in making this annual a success. The editor and co-editor have kept the annual staff in line. The business managers have kept an accurate account of income and expenditures, while the advertising managers have visited the nearby towns and cities for "ads." All the other departments have worked untiringly to make this annual possible.

BUSINESS MANAGERS—Standing: Jack Kinney, Naomi Strickland, Bob Deacon, Wells West. Seated: Morris Swiger, Norma Scott, Ann Beninger, Annetta Armbruster, Pat Moore, Dolly Zonner.



PHOTOGRAPHY, ART, AND SPORTS EDITORS—Standing: Eunice Pfeifer, Kathleen Anderson, Lawrence Hoffman. Seated: Harold Morris, Charles Harris, Herman Harris.

SENIOR HI-LITE STAFF

Editor, Hobie Helman. Co-Editor, Margery Miller. Business Managers, Morris Swiger, Norma Jean Scott, Thelma Tackett. Advertising Managers, Bob Deacon, Donna Jean Breitenbach, Dolly Zonner. Literary, Annetta Armbruster, Doris Oney, Lois Cool. Art, Harold Morris, Melvin Jones, John McCoy. Gossip, Naomi Strickland, Betty Fulscher, Ann Beninger, Doris Brown. Sports, Herman Harris, Lawrence Hoffman. High School News, Betty Downing, Ruth Snyder, Robert Steniner. Features, Kathleen Anderson, Eunice Pfeifer. High School Circulation, Betty Castle. Grade School Circulation, Juanita Keechle, Amajean Walters, Dolores Whaley. Mimeograph, Wells West. Donald Hammond, Pat Moore, Jim McGowan. Adviser, Miss Vallery.

Hobie, the editor of the Hi-Lites, has kept the Seniors hopping to keep up with his demands. "Hi-Lites are out Friday and I want the stencils cut by Thursday. Does everyone understand? Bob, are all the 'ads' taken care of? How about that gossip, Naomi? Are the literary and feature pages complete? Herman, did you put the scores of the last ball game on the sports page? Where is the grade-school news? Melvin, we need another picture for the last page." After all the mad rush, the Hi-Lites come out always "bigger and better" than the one before it.

JUNIOR HI-LITE STAFF

Editor, Carolyn Rhoads. Co-Editor, Jerry Brown. Business Managers, Richard Armbruster, Mary Lou Leeth. Advertising Managers, John Schwartz, Corda Crabtree, Bill Scott. Art, Mildred Carter, Bill Arrowood, Don Mathews. Sports, Bob Dyke, Kenny Hale. Literary, Norma Jean Browning, Juanita Massie, Marcella Massie. Features, Beulah Howard. Gossip, Lois West, Barbara Rooker, Eileen Literest, Charlotte Yates. Grade School Circulation, Scott Blyth, Eileen Harris, Anna Anderson. High School Circulation, Homer Chandler. Mimeograph, Bob Doll, Willard Dixon. Adviser, Mrs. Freshour.

The Juniors were responsible for the publication of the Hi-Lite for the second semester. They bravely ventured forth on the first edition and each succeeding issue became better and better. Their paper for the first semester of their Senior year promises to be a "super" one.

BOY SCOUTS

The purpose of the Boy Scout Club is for recreation and for training for better citizenship. Troop 76 of Waverly has a membership of seventeen boys under the leadership of Max Way. The Council which includes representatives from Pike, Jackson, and Ross is headed by Scout Executive, Joe Banes, and Field Executive, Bob West.

SEA SCOUTS

The Sea Scouts is an organization whose activities deal with the water. The Sea Scout Ship, Pike, has now a membership of ten boys. They are now busy trying to raise funds through paper drives and by other means to build a bunk house at Lake White and to buy a boat. Earl James and John Hartmus are the organization's leaders.

SEA SCOUTS—Seated: Jerry Brown, Robert Doll, Leo Foster, Robert Farmer. Standing: Neil James, John McCoy, Bob Dyke, Kenny Hale, Robert Stewart, Bill Scott.

First Row: Madlyne Keechle, Jean Bauer, Helda Butler, Beverly Pfahl, Diane Blankenship, Betty Martin. GIRL SCOUTS

The Waverly Girl Scouts under the leadership of Mrs. Lew Mrachek, Mrs. Betty Booth, Mrs. Roscoe Drake, and Mrs. Tom Martin are divided into Second Classmen and Tenderfoots. Mrs. Mrachek instructs the class in First Aid while Mrs. Drake has charge of Crafts and Arts. The Scouts successfully sponsored a box supper in September, a Hallowe'en party in October, and a Christmas party in December. The officers are as follows: president, Jane Beninger; secretary, Margaret Collins; treasurer, Dolores Martin; patrol leaders, Nora Leigh Sautter and Connie Booth. The troop crest is a sprig of holly.

PEP CLUB

The Pep Club was organized by Coach Hawhee and Mr. Rapp to promote school spirit. Mr. Rapp, our sponsor, and the coach selected the Varsity, the Reserve, and the Alternate Cheerleaders to be charter members. Each cheerleader chose two students to be added to the membership. At the first meeting, plans were made for a bonfire and snake dance to be held the night before the football game, and for a bus to be furnished to transport the members to and from each basketball game away from home. At every game the club showed such wonderful enthusiasm that everyone feels it has been worthwhile.

First Row: Corda Crabtree, Delores Martin, Juanita Massie, Annetta Armbruster, Jerry Locke. Mary Lou Leeth was the president of the Waverly Chapter of the F. H. A. She was a member of the Hi-Lite staff and has appeared on assembly programs sponsored by the Home Economics Department. She took part in the F. H. A. broadcasting program at Portsmouth. She is a 4H Club member and participated in a demonstration at the Pike County Fair last summer. She holds the Junior and Chapter degrees in the F. H. A. and received the State Homemaker degree at Columbus.

Lois West has been an outstanding F. H. A. member for three years. Her activities have included special services to her home, school and community. She has held offices in the local F. H. A. chapter and was the county president this year. She was interviewed for information about the F. H. A. over W.P.A.Y. She was a member of the Hi-Lite staff and directed an assembly program. She is a 4H Club leader and was chosen last summer to attend an all-Ohio Camp for leaders. She has been a director in the youth groups. She received the State Homemaker degree of the F. H. A. in Columbus.

Betty Fulscher has served the F. H. A. as news reporter and secretary. Her work in the Home Economics has been excellent. She was a member of the Hi-Lite and Annual Staff and sang in the Glee Club. She was chosen as a hostess for the Labor Saving Appliances Show presented by the Extension Department of Ohio State University. She was a candidate for the State Homemaker Degree.

F. H. A. OFFICERS

Standing: Treasurer, Ann Beninger; Secretary, Betty Fulscher; Parliamentarian, Alma June Sansom; Historian, Wanda Strickland; News Reporter, Dorothy Fulscher. Sitting: President, Mary Lou Leeth; Vice-President, Lois West.

HONORS and AWARDS

SPORTS AWARDS

League Trophy

Waverly won the Pike County League trophy in basketball, which entitles them to keep the large gold basketball in their trophy case until next year. Waverly and Beaver have their names on the trophy twice, and, when either of the two teams gets its name on it a third time, the trophy becomes the school's permanent possession.

County Runners-Up Trophy

The Tigers, after winning 21 regular season games and losing only 4, was defeated by Stockdale in the county finals. Waverly had previously defeated this team twice in the County League play. The Tigers received the runners-up trophy in the county tourney.

S.O.C. Sportsmanship Award

Waverly, Minford, and Portsmouth East tied for the sportsmanship award in the Southern Ohio Conference this year. This trophy was won by Waverly last year.

Chuck Harris Gets Honorable Mention

Charles "Chuck" Harris won places on the All-County and the Southern Ohio Conference Basketball teams. He, also, was named by the Associated Press in Columbus as one of the Class B high school athletes to receive honorable mention on the All-Star selections.

ROBERT VALLERY

MR. ROBERT LEEDOM
Sec. of Southern Ohio A.A.A

MR. TEICHERT

OTHER HONORS

Results of the Senior Scholarship Test

Morris Swiger, a member of this year's graduating class, made a score of 273 points out of a possible 300. He ranked third in the state, one point behind the boy who took second place. Other Seniors in the county who ranked high were:

Morris Swiger, Waverly	273
Helen Patterson, Piketon	218
Billy Green, Beaver	209
Nettie McAllister, Piketon	205
Hobie Helman, Waverly	204
Norbert Vulgamore, Piketon	201
Margery Miller, Waverly	190
Ann Beninger, Waverly	176

D. A. R. Test

Five Waverly Seniors took part in the nation-wide test sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution. These five girls were Betty Castle, Ann Beninger, Lois Cool, Eunice Pfeifer, and Margery Miller.

F. H. A. Honors

Lois West and Mary Lou Leeth received the state Homemaker Degree of the Future Homemakers of America at the state meeting, held at Ohio State University in Columbus on May 8.

Lois West was chosen to be Ohio's delegate to the National F. H. A. meeting to be held at Kansas City, Missouri, July 6-8. She is also the candidate from Ohio for National Vice President.

Essay Contest

An essay contest was sponsored by the First National Bank of Waverly for all the high school students in Pike County. A banquet was held in honor of the winners of each grade through high school. Morris Swiger received the grand price of one-hundred dollars. Other winners in Waverly were Ermaline McDowell, Marilyn Watters, Eunice Pfeifer, and Morris Swiger.

Waverly High School Is First In Southern Ohio To Sponsor Safe Drivers Course

Waverly has become the first high school in Southern Ohio to introduce a course in driving and public safety into the regular school curriculum. Robert and Harry Vallery have loaned a dual controlled car to be used for demonstration. The instructor is Oscar Raidiger, a teacher in the school. Surveys have shown that the driver's education and training courses reduce traffic accidents one-half.

A REPUTATION FOR QUALITY

The character of the store is reflected in the quality of your purchase. Our background of more than 70 years' experience in the buying of watches, diamonds and jewelry, is your assurance of the quality and reliability of our merchandise.

In the selection of a diamond or a watch for instance — the average person must rely upon the integrity of the jeweler in the matter of quality. Our reputation is built upon the reliable advice we have extended to our patrons throughout the years.

OUR DEFERRED PAYMENTS

This accommodation costs you nothing extra, adds nothing to our usual reasonable prices, and in no way affects the quality of your purchase.
